

PRESERVE D.C. COOK BUILDING INFORMATION MEETING

Please join the NENA Board of Directors for an informational meeting, followed by a Q & A regarding the proposed demolition of the historic DC Cook building.

What to expect:

1. Learn about the history of the DC Cook Company and the architectural significance of the building and site.
2. Get the latest information on the situation, e.g., DC Cook has agreed to wait until January to file for a demolition permit.
3. Learn what NENA and the City have been doing to prevent or delay demolition.
4. Ask questions, make suggestions.
5. Participate in strategizing NENA's next steps.

Meeting date & location:
